

The Chaldean Australian Society (CAS), a community-based and not-for-profit organisation established in 1993 to serve the Chaldean community in NSW. CAS addresses the settlement needs to the increasing numbers of Chaldeans arriving to Australia under humanitarian entry and family reunion and the majority of them settle in Fairfield, Liverpool, Mount Druitt and South Western Sydney areas. CAS maintains the Chaldean culture and at the same time assists the engagement of Chaldeans with the Australian society. We welcome and help the locals and others who are in need of our services.

ANNUAL REPORT 2019

CAS Ongoing Services

CAS provides free services to our community 3 days a week (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) by the members of our committee and the volunteers. We help our community by providing:

- Information and advice
- Referral
- Support Letters
- Advocacy
- Case Management
- Assistance with form filling related to Immigration, Citizenship, Housing, Centrelink, Health Services, Enrolling in School and TAFE, etc.

Information Sessions and Support Services for the Chaldean Community

This project is to support the Chaldean Community particularly new arrivals in settlement issues and to integrate with the Australian society. This involves information sessions and support services for individuals, families, and groups. This activity holds for the fourth year fortnightly on Fridays from 10 am to 12 pm at Meeting Room, Fairfield Community Services Centre, 25 Barbara St, Fairfield NSW 2165. This project is a partnership with CORE Community Services.

2018/2019 Fostering Integration Grants

Project: Preparation to Become an Australian Citizen

The Chaldean Australian Society has received a grant under Fostering Integration Grants funded by Department of Home Affairs to run a project “Preparation to Become an Australian Citizen”. This activity aims to help Chaldeans and local Fairfield residents who are about to become Australian citizens and have difficulties to prepare for the Australian Citizenship test due to lack of their English language, literacy, or understanding the information mentioned in the “Australian citizenship resource book”.
