Chaldean Australian Society (CAS)

The Chaldean Australian Society (CAS) is a community based and not for profit organisation established in 1993 to serve the Chaldean community in NSW.

CAS Services

CAS provides:

- Direct support work
- Information and referral
- Settlement-related advice
- Assistance with form filling
- Case management
- Community development programs
- Social activities

CAS Objectives

- Promote, encourage and maintain the Chaldean cultural and social heritage, values, and traditions amongst members of the Chaldean community in NSW and in Australia, through various cultural and social means and activities
- Welcome and render help to the new Chaldean migrants, refugees and humanitarian entrants and address their settlement needs
- Promote welfare, social, educational and recreational activities to enhance the engagement with the Australian society
- Lobby government agencies and service providers to implement equity strategies to enable access by Chaldeans
- Provide support, information, educational and community development programs to the members of the Chaldean community and others in Fairfield, Liverpool, Mount Druitt and South Western Sydney areas
